

What will we do?

Chat Ropes course

Archery Games

Nintendo Wii Crafts Discussions

Inflatables Football Volleyball

Sleeping! Golf

Mountain bikes

How much does it cost?

The cost of the weekend is £30. This includes transport, accommodation, food and activities. The cost is reduced for a second member of the same family (£20). You may want to take some spending money for the bookshop and tuckshop.

How do I book my place?

Complete the enclosed booking form! Send it to us at BCYT, with a cheque or cash for either £10 (reservation fee, non-returnable) or £30 (full fee). Send to: BCYT, Platform One, Station Road, Duns, TD11 3HS. Tel: 01361 883063.

Where are we going?

Lendrick Muir is an activity centre near Kinross, owned by Scripture Union Scotland. Travel there will be by coach from Eyemouth, Chirnside and Duns. There's a massive sports hall, a football pitch, beach volley ball court and an outdoor adventure playground, as well as lounges to relax and chat in. There's also a bookshop and a tuckshop.

Who's running it?

The weekend will be run by a team of people under the leadership of Michelle Livingstone, BCYT. Each young person will be in a small group in the immediate care of an adult leader.